

Splendors of Morocco September 24 – October 7, 2024

Journey to Morocco's four imperial cities—Rabat, Meknes, Fez, and Marrakech, experiencing the country's rich culture, stunning geographical diversity, and six World Heritage sites as you travel from the Atlantic coast to the Sahara desert and through the High Atlas mountains.

Overview

Morocco is a land of dramatic contrasts—desert dunes and snowcapped mountains, Roman ruins and sacred mosques, ancient adobe fortresses and spirited souks. Trace the influence of Phoenicians, Romans, Berbers, Jews, Arabs, and the Portuguese and French as you explore four imperial cities from Rabat to Marrakech. Encounter incomparable Moroccan artistry in palaces and madrassas covered in intricate mosaics and stucco work. Step back in time in the enchanting alleyways of Fez's medieval medina, where artisans ply their age-old crafts. Between your city stays, venture to red-rock gorges, fortified kasbahs, and oasis towns, and watch the sunset over the Saharan dunes.
